INTRODUCTION

The letters in this booklet may have been written to you. Only you will know. If they are, then you are chosen by God, They were sent to you for a purpose. The purpose being, so you will know that you are the one God has chosen. If these letters are writing on your heart when you read them they have served their purpose, making you aware of His presence.

These letters are written with the intention of getting deep into your heart. If they do, it is you God has been searching for your entire life. If these letters touch your heart you belong to God. God is waiting for you. You are the one.

Wisdom for You, My Love.

*Forsake her not, and she shall preserve thee: love her, and she shall keep thee.
Proverbs 4:6*

An older friend of mine always lived by the rule. "Let your conscience be your guide." Whenever he was faced with a tough decision, he said, "I stop thinking and I start feeling. For this wise old gentleman, wisdom came from listening not so much to his mind, but more to his heart. He always told me that he knew deep inside whether or not he was making a good choice. Whenever he tried to do what he knew wasn't right, a feeling crept over him, and he could not rest easily until he did what was right.

Truly God has given us a conscience, "a still, small voice," an inner wisdom which guides us and comforts us when we remain true to its instruction. When we choose to ignore the wisdom of our conscience, we face feelings of guilt and anxiety. When we pay close attention to the wisdom of our conscience we find that there is a special comfort. Doing what we know to be right offers not only freedom from guilt, but also a joy which comes forth from our soul. Christ rejoices each time we open ourselves to the Holy Spirit in our lives. Often, God speaks to us through our conscience. If we listen, God will preserve and keep us.

PRAYER: My heavenly father and Lord, I reach out to your guidance and will. Fill me with your special wisdom so that I might always choose to follow the right path. Shine your light before me so I will never stray. Make it known to me when my heart is being called to you to fulfill any special purposes of yours. Open the door of my heart when the love you send is knocking, and your love enter my heart and overwhelm me. All this I ask you, in the name of my Lord and your Son, Jesus' name. Amen

I want nothing more than to fill your heart with my love forever. Your heart must be pure, undefiled, open with acceptance, and full of love's obedience.

Turn up your refiner's fire in this hour to separate the pure gold and silver from the dross of sin, impurity and flesh, only if you long for my love to fill your heart. Only then will you share my love, for an impure defiled heart is not capable of holding the gold and silver love produces there. When your heart is filled we will walk, talk and act as one person in the Lord.

You are my most powerful bride because you are in my heart. I am coming for you, but, your heart must be free of idolatries, and must be a heart that has eyes only for me. Your heart must renounce her ties with sins of the flesh, deeds of the flesh, and any investments of Satan so we can worship the Father and have His blessing to worship one another. We must be obedient to the Father as one, only then, can we join our hearts as partners in life.

When we come into the Father's glory, His glory will fill our house. As one, we will always take the time to enter the Lord's presence before we do anything. We must seek His face before seeking His hand. We must even seek Him before seeking His will, for he is holy, righteous and exacting

He has chosen us to join together as one and worship Him. He has set us aside from the world for this very purpose. We are His children. He desires that we worship Him in spirit and truth, and out of that truth and worship will come an abiding relationship between us. We will be in one spirit. This is the kind of intimacy I desire with you.

Only when we, as one, worship and praise the Lord, will we receive His blessing and our needs will be fully supplied, all our questions will be answered, and our wounds will be healed. We will be one in paradise.

He does not want our works; He wants our love, passion, obedience and desire for His presence in us. We must give all of ourselves to Him to become capable of pleasing one another. He will bless us with more than our finite minds can imagine.

As I have told you, get ready, get your obedience obedient, and purify your heart. For I am coming for you, my bride, and you must be ready when I come for you. My heart has been filled for you by the Lord. He has brought me to you to fill your heart with your share of what He has filled me with. This is of the stock you have not yet witnessed, and He will over-whelm you with His joy.

Remember, you must begin today to prepare your heart. For it must be pure and obedient. Temptation, be it of lust, false worship, or anything that does not please the Lord must be stopped.

Flee from fornication, for that is sin against your body and is reserved for only after you receive it's blessing from Him.

Do this, and we can live as one, for love is obedience and cannot exist without it.

My Love for You I

My Love, I just woke up and my heart is full of wanting for you. You have touched my heart in its deepest places by being yourself. Your spirit has deeply connected with my spirit. To me, you are worth more than your weight in rubies, gold or silver. My confidence in you is full. I am confident you will bring fulfillment to me in all my days.

Many do many things to be noble, but you surpass them all. Their charm is deceptive, their outer beauty is fleeting, but a person like you, who fears the Lord, is to be praised. I pray the Lord gives you the reward you have earned and I hope your works radiate his face with praise.

The love which you will be filled is slow to lose patience, and it looks for a way to be constructive. It is gentle; but there will be tribulation. As you endure these times, you will grow closer as one in the Father. His love for you is not possessive, is neither anxious to impress nor does it cherish inflated ideas of its own importance; it has good manners, and does not pursue any type of a selfish advantage. It is not touchy. It does not keep account of good or evil, nor gloat over either. It shares its joy only with you when you live by the Truth. There is no limit to its endurance, no end to its trust, no fading of its hope or depth.

My Love for You II

My love, No one has ever seen the Father and lived. But when we love one another with full hearts, the Father will live in us. When the Father is in our hearts, our hearts will be full of His love, and our love for one another will be complete.

To keep our love strong for one another, we must love the Father first. By loving the Father first, He will live in us, and His love will be the source of our love for one another. We cannot love unless we love the Father first, He is the source of all love. Without Him, we only have lust of flesh, sexual immorality, or a perversion of His love. Any love affair without loving the Father first is not true. It is our bodies fulfilling the needs of our flesh. It is our pent up lusts releasing them through sexual action. That is not of God that is of Satan.

Love is patient, Love is kind. Love does not envy, it does not boast, is not proud, is not rude, not self seeking, and is not easily angered. Love keeps no records of wrongs. Love is forgiving. Love rejoices in truth. Love always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always preserves. Love never fails. (1Cor13:4-8)

This is the concept of my love for you. I want to give you nothing less. I want to share the love the Father has filled my heart with for you. Forever.

My Love for You III

My love, the time for us to come together as one in the Lord is near. My desire to be joined together with you today is much stronger than my desire of yesterday. It grows by the minute. I choose you. I am waiting for you to be my bride, so I can love you the way the Father designed you to be loved.

The Father has set us apart for His purpose. His purpose is Love. He has brought us together, introduced us and He is bringing us closer to one another. He has filled me with a strong faith that the time is near when you and I will be together as one in His presence. When He unites us, we will be inseparable.

My heart is completely filled with love for you. When I think it has reached its peak, it grows more. My love for you is stronger than I have ever imagined it could be.

God, the Father, is the author of love and has written our script. We, as actors in His theatre, will soon follow His script to the unity He has written into the script for us.

My love for You IV

My Love, when the Father has finished His preparation of my heart for you, I am coming for you. You are my bride already, but we have to wait for God. It will not be in our time, but in the Father's time. I want you to have all of me and I want all of you, for eternity. I want nothing but you.

My love for you is so strong I am doing all I can to keep from coming for you. But, I must be patient and wait for the Father because you are far too precious for me to rush and not let God have control of the beautiful relationship we will have for eternity.

My love will motivate you. Together we will do what we never dreamed we could. Without one another, we will do nothing, either of us. That is because the Father has set us apart to be together in eternity. That is the power of the love of God when it is inside your heart.

I want to experience the love He is filling you with for me. I am waiting for you to show me with all your heart, for all of eternity. When you show me, I will return your love with my love, for all of eternity. Do not hold back any of your love. Love is meant to be given to me. That's why God gave it to you.

My Love for You V

My Love, when the Father chooses you and sets you aside, it will not be possible for you to ignore the feelings His love will generate deep inside your heart. You will be attracted to me and the attraction will grow daily, It will remain deeply implanted in your heart until the Father decides to fully open your heart.

When the Father wants to make the Son known to you, sometimes he does it subtly. Sometimes He hits you right in the heart and makes it unavoidable. He may even tell you by circumstances. Many things will be glaring at you. Everything around you will be pointing it out to you. Be sure you are paying attention.

the Father's choice for you can be made known in other ways. The Father may simply come right out and tell you, and your heart will receive His message. The Father has a special way of communicating to you that nobody else has. He will touch your heart in a special way.

God is never in a hurry, but His will and His word will not return to Him void. I am here.

My Love for You VI

My love, I am almost ready to come for you. You need to be ready. Your heart must be free of anything you love other than me, as any love other than for me in your heart is idolatry. Your heart was made by the Father for me. I want all of your heart, but you must give it to me freely.

Your heart must be free of any addictions, for my love is more divine than any addiction can be. Your heart must be free of sexual immorality, for my love will satisfy any and all the sexual needs your body can crave. Your heart must be free of hatred and uneasiness with others, because my love going to fill your heart. When I come for you we will be one.

Prepare yourself, repent of anything that does not belong in your heart. The time is near. I am coming to become one with you in the Father.

Do not procrastinate, do not do drugs, and do not engage in sexually immorality, for these things will block my love from filling your heart. Your heart must be pure. I love you with all my heart and will be coming soon to fill you with my love. Be ready so you may receive the joy the Father has given me for you.

My love for You VII

My love, my desire is to hold you in my arms and let my love fill you. I want to remove all your troubles and you and make you feel better than you have ever known. My love will caress you into the depths of your heart. My love, vibes will travel through your entire bodies putting it to rest in peace. You will be in glory.

When we share the love in our hearts, we will raise the level of love from the foundation the Father has placed us on when He joined us together.

We will express God's true gentleness in our hearts exchange of love. Because our hearts have been joined by Him, they are locked together with God's love. Our love will be as God intended it to be and will surpass anything you have experienced through the lusts of your past. You will be completely satisfy at heart thankful the Father has set you aside for me.

My love for You VIII

This message is for you my love, so please read it slowly and think about every word, because they are written on your heart from mine. They are treasured deeply in my heart and if you accept them with the love I am sending them with, they will become deeply treasured in your heart.

This message is inspired by your dream. It was powerful, and I was in your dream, protecting you because you are powerful in my heart. My heart is full of love for you. I love you with all my heart and will never forsake you. I will lead you by your heart to where the Father commands me.

My love is not physical, but gentle, impartial, and full of obedience. Your love needs to be the same. The Father is working on your heart for that purpose. You must never let your physical or ungentle or disobedient ways come before your love the Father. Your heart and your actions must work hand and hand to please the Father. If your love becomes more physical than emotional and is not gentle and of obedience from your heart, it has been defiled by Satan and is influenced by him.

I am waiting for you because right now, that is the Father's plan. He is preparing you for a love as strong as He has given me for you. He will bring us together when you are prepared. He will make us one in Him for eternity.

My love for You IX

When we are united as one in the Father, we will know everything we need to know to please one another as we have never been pleased. It will be our obligation to the Father to live for the Father and please Him, who brought us together. Nothing will stop this because it is His will.

The love that will bring us together has been planted by the Father. This special love was spiritually planted and will grow into His blessing. His blessing will establish us in an abiding relationship of everlasting love. This is a love which you have never known. This love will make our former loves empty. We will soon have a God given loving relationship. This love is from the source of love. There is nothing we can compare it to. It will be something overwhelming and new. You will have to learn how to gently express it and receive the abundances this type of love produces.

I will bless you and you will bless me. The Father will have it no other way. The Father has introduced us. We must now wait for Him. When He opens your heart, He will make the love he has put in your heart flow between our hearts and build our eternal relationship. It cannot be stopped. We will soon be united as one in the Father for eternity.

Jesus saith unto him, I am theway, the truth, and the life:
no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

Joh 14:6
